H60

This year the Staff of the Wo-He-Lo takes great pleasure in dedicating this yearbook to a woman whom we, the Staff, the student body, and faculty consider a most outstanding individual. She is a person who has a sincere interest in those she so ably guides and directs. She is an untiring worker, a dedicated teacher, and her sincerity and graciousness have won for her an enduring place in the hearts and memories of those whose lives she has touched. As a small token of our appreciation and confidence, we humbly and gratefully dedicate this, the 1959-60 Wo-He-Lo, to Mrs. May R. Pennington.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I am honored to be privileged to extend a brief word of thanks for all the labors going into this memorial publication which, I am sure, will grow more meaningful as the years go by. Certainly 1960 is a year to remember--the many lasting friendships, the academic accomplishments of so many fine young people, the victories in the several inter-school activities, the dedication of a fine new library, to mention a few.

Especially, I want to extend to each and every personality contained herein my very best wishes for a happy and a successful life during the years ahead.

Most cordially,

Recorders, which are woodwind instruments much like a toy tin whistle, are played by blowing through a whistle-type mouthpiece while closing or opening the six side-holes with the fingers. The early recorders, which were made of wood, were of different sizes and pitches. They were popular in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries and were used for chamber music in a small audience hall. These instruments were used to play madrigals, a lyric, usually featuring a famous character and adapted to musical setting. East Central is fortunate in receiving these recorders from an anonymous benefactress.

One of the most valuable sources of news is the co-operating faculty of which Glenda Tolbert takes full advantage.

With "noses for news," Lahoma Lockwood and Mary Garner find social highlights in the Student Center.

The coaches are the source for most of the sports news. Sports writers Larry Hogue and Randy Miles interview Coach Brackeen.

The TOM-TOM presents news from each department in every issue. Charlotte Thornton, reporter, interviews Mr. Ovid Vickers concerning activities in the Speech Department.

Feature writer, Clemmer Slaton, and sports writer, Harold Graham, ponder over fresh angles and ideas for their new assignments, while Hedy Ann Williams and Jack Neese, columnists, search for original views for their columns, "In My Opinion" and "Campus Christianity."

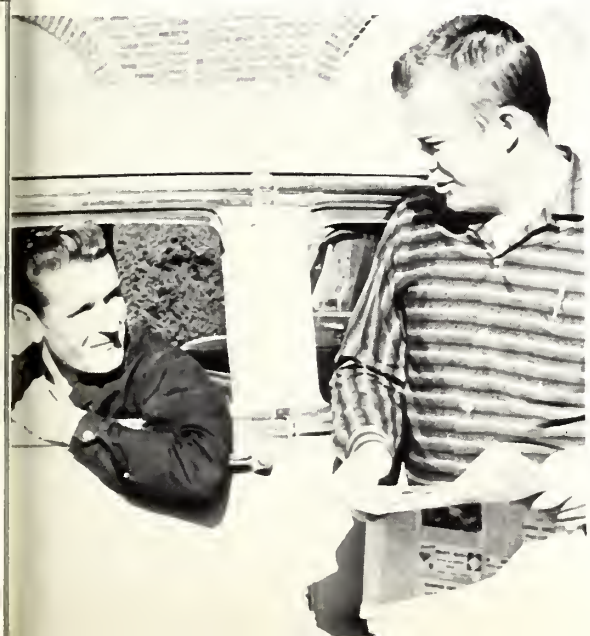
Happy with the finished product, Joan Hill (RIGHT) turns in her articles to be checked.

From the "dark room" come spice and variety for the paper as Jerry Harrison and Bob Redd, school photographers, develop pictures for the publication.

Readying copy on press night for the printers are typists Ann Wilcher, Willie Jean Jones, Sue Hamilton, Odessa Lampkin, Eula Mae Fleming, and Patricia Lovern.

The making up of the dummy presents pleasure as well as problems for the Executive Staff.



Circulation staff members, Don Howington and James Joyner, discuss their task of sending TOM-TOMS from Denver, Colorado, to Baltimore, Maryland.

Jimmy Barfield and Jerry Winstead, Advertising Staff, are busily preparing ads for the next edition.
